Paint & Photograph Rowlett

June 5 - August 14, 2021

Rowlett Public Library, 3900 Main, Rowlett

BEST OF SHOW $500 AWARD

“Mark Twain Pauses and Reflects”

by James Gilbreath

“In having to decide between photography and fine art paintings to pick the best the show was very difficult, because the criteria for what makes a good painting and what makes a good photo are not the same, but a decision had to be made — I chose a painting - the work is a very challenging scene to do and re-create. And the artist took care and precision to work out the complexities of the scene and even though it doesn't have the perfections the photo would have it has a liveliness And faithfulness to the scene being painted and also the wonderful recreation of another world that lives in the reflection of the glass window. A job well done!”
